

Building Products Digest

January 2005

Stanley Works Secures ISR

Stanley Works has acquired ISR Solutions, Washington, D.C., establishing its presence as a government contractor for Homeland Security initiatives.

The terms of the deal were not disclosed for ISR, which designs, installs and maintains electronic security systems for the government, as well as commercial customers.