

November 18, 2004

News

President of Stanley Security Selected to SIA Board

Nov 18, 2004, NEW BRITAIN, Conn. -- The president of Stanley Security Solutions, Justin Boswell, has been appointed to the Security Industry Association's (SIA) 2005 Board of Directors. A vote formalized the appointment and is effective immediately. "We are extremely delighted to have Mr. Boswell as one of SIA's newest board members," says Joe Grillo, president of SIA.

The newly appointed member will play an important part in guiding the direction of SIA and will help develop policy and best practices. Boswell helped acquire Best Access Systems, Blick plc and Frisco Bay Industries, and has been aiding in Stanley's entry into the security business.

Stanley Security Solutions made its formal introduction to the security industry at September's ASIS expo in Dallas. Serving as an industry resource, SIA provides assistance, educational programs and support for its members in all aspects of security.